VOLUME XXXIV. NUMBER 28.

IRONTON, MO.

THURSDAY, JAN. 3, 1901.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Quite a lot of staves are being brought to town these days.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Harvey E. Sutherland, Cadott, Wis., December 14, 1900, a son.

The schools resumed Monday. Contrary to the usual rule school was held New Year's day.

About forty people were in attendance at midnight mass at the Convent Chapel Monday night.

The Tuesday Club entertained members and friends at the residence of Mrs. Ringo Tuesday afternoon.

The thermometer registered 6 degrees above zero this morning—to date, the coldest weather of the winter.

To the Oesterle Shoe Company, of St. Louis, we are indebted for a very handsome and attractive calendar for 1901.

The Ladies' Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church will meet with Mrs. Metcalfe Tuesday January 8, at 2 p. m.

The new time-card which went into effect December 23d, doesn't change the time of any of the trains on the main line.

The revival continues at the M. E. Church. Rev. Howard, of Boone Terra, Mo., and Miss Anna Anderson, of Fruitland, are in charge.

Married—Christmas day, 1900, Mr. Fred Kiedel, Jr., of Ironton and Miss Hattie Polk of Arcadia. The REGISTER extends congratulations and best wishes.

The Baptist, Presbyterian and Methodist churches held union watch services at the Methodist Church Monday night. There were also services at Fort Hill.

One of the pleasantest features of the holidays in Ironton was a gathering at the home of Miss Nannie Brown Christmas night. The young folks all report a most enjoyable evening.

The Helein Stave Factory pay out weekly from nine to eleven hundred dollars and are receiving about all the staves they can comfortably handle. The stave industry is not to be sneezed at.

The Baptist Aid Society meets with Mrs. A. S. Prince, Thursday, Jan. 3d at 2 p. m. Election of officers and payment of annual dues will constitute the principal part of business for the afternoon.

Rev. T. A. Waterman has accepted a call to become rector of St. Paul's church. At present he will devote three weeks in the month to the work here. The other week he will spend at Berier, Mo.

W. J. Neely, who has been in charge of T. S. Lopez and Sons' store at this place for several years, resigned last week and accepted a position with the Clarkson Lumber Co. at Leeper.—Piedmont Banner.

Ironton will not need be ashamed of her streets the coming summer, the work lately done on them being such as to endure for several years. The outlay has been considerable, but the results will justify it.

Just now we have one moon yet; but behold the dark nights will come again. Which thought reminds us that this town ought to have street lamps to guide the feet of the belated wayfarer and make life a burden to midnight roguery.

Ludwig Reichert, who has lived in the Flat Woods for many years past, last week sold his farm to Fritz Detmar. Mr. Reichert will probably remove nearer to town and devote all his time to his trade—that of a stone mason, and a good one he is, too.

DECEMBER WEATHER.—Mean maximum temperature, 48; mean minimum temperature, 24; mean temperature, 36; maximum temperature, 66; minimum temperature, 8; total precipitation 1.68 inches.

W. H. DELANO, Observer.

Will Carter, colored, formerly of Ironton, who killed another negro, named William Bateman, last summer in the Union Station yard, last Monday pleaded guilty to manslaughter and received a sentence of five years in the penitentiary. He had been indicted for murder.

Last summer one of the Syrian peddlers living in the brick house south of the courthouse was held up and robbed of about $15 on the road near Sabula. Thursday evening Sheriff Gregory and Constable Marshall went to Pilot Knob and arrested Joe Farmer, as one of the offenders. Farmer will stay in jail until Circuit Court.

There will be a special term of Circuit Court Friday for the purpose of trying Henry Beard and Pate Sides, the two negroes who were arrested last month for "holding up" a man from Reynolds County on the streets election night. It is understood the defendants will plead guilty and accept a sentence of five years in the penitentiary.

List of letters remaining in the Post-Office at Ironton, Mo., for the week ending Dec. 29, 1900. If not called for within two weeks, they will be sent to the Dead Letter Office: Mrs. Lucinda Bailey Thos J Conway (2) Persons claiming the above will please say "advertised" and give date of this list. J. N. BISHOP, P. M.

The Odd Fellows' ball at the Academy of Music Friday night last was attended by about sixty couple, and the affair was termed a complete success by every one in attendance. From the evening, with a slight increase in the evening, the dance went gaily on. There was no halting, no lagging, a joyous, happy crowd, all on fun and pleasure bent.

A poetic friend in philosophic mood, hands us the following:
Man is such a mixture of appetite passion desire!
Appetite supplies the fuel, but passion starts the fire—
No, I mistake and leave out one,
For in this list should the habit come.
Habit is the master as the dog is of the pup—
Did you ever have a habit and try to give it up?

Piedmont had another conflagration last Monday evening. The fire broke out at 6:30 o'clock, and an hour or two later smoldering embers marked the spot where some of the most prominent business houses of the town had stood. Three buildings were totally destroyed. M. J. Kyle, restaurant; Dettmar Bros., meat market; John Head, Grand Central Hotel, and Blaine and Malugen, druggists. Loss about $15,000, probably half covered by insurance.

Mr. Lewis Bean and family, of Irondale, were in town Monday, enroute to make a Christmas visit to relatives on Fourche a Renault. Mr. Bean informs us that the boom at Irondale shows no signs of abatement. The new mines there are now in pay ore and the company is enlarging its mining plant. He also states that times are prosperous there, the money put into circulation for various purposes amounting to at least $5000 per month.—Piedmont Journal.

The Baptist Ladies are still soliciting subscriptions for the Delinquent and Ladies' Home Journal at one dollar a year for each magazine. Also The Saturday Evening Post an illustrated weekly magazine, which were formerly $2.50 per annum, now for a limited time at one dollar. They will take subscriptions for Delinquent until Feb. 15th, 1901—and for The Ladies' Home Journal and Saturday Evening Post until May 1st, 1901. They will esteem it a great favor if you give them your subscription.

A representative of the Bell Telephone Company was here last week making arrangements for the construction of the long distance telephone line through the Valley. About eighty men are now at work building the line between Farmington and Fredericktown. As soon as they have completed their work there, they will at once come to Arcadia and build a line from here to Bismarck, where connection will be made with the Bell Telephone System to all points. The work will be hurried through.

At St. Paul's Episcopal Church the old year and century were watched out by members and friends present. Rev. T. A. Waterman who had officiated the previous Sunday conducted a short service with an address on resolutions for the New Year. Also speaking of the progress of mankind during the past century and the cheering prospect for the work of the Christian Church during the one just dawning. Just before the hour of midnight tolled out, selections were read from Tennyson and Longfellow, and prayers were offered for obedience to God's will. After the tolling of the hour the Gloria in Excelsis was sung and all those present retired with wishes for many happy returns of the New Year.

Miss Lillian Steel most delightfully entertained a number of the young people Saturday evening, and 'tis no exaggeration to state that the evening was unquestionably a complete success. Everyone enjoyed themselves and the fair hostess certainly proved herself a model entertainer. It was just one of those rare occasions when every one present had a good time, and there was no dragging, nor lack of interest anywhere. Those present were:

The Graham Earle Company will open an engagement of one week in the Academy of Music commencing Monday, January 14th. This Company has been playing in Southeastern Missouri during the past few weeks, and judging from the press reports seems to have given general satisfaction. Following is from the Perryville Sun: "Our theatre going people have been spending a delightful week attending the splendid performances of Graham Earle Co., at the Opera House this week. The company played to a full house Monday evening, presenting 'Belles of the Evening.' Tuesday evening was delightfully spent enjoying the humor and pathos intermingled in the beautiful drama, 'The Country Girl.' 'Two Married Men,' a comedy success royally rendered, on Wednesday evening, sent every body away laughing, and if there is anything in a name there won't be so much laughing to night, when the Company present the powerful Melodrama East Lynne. The Company are among the best that ever visited this city, a Company composed of ladies and gentlemen in every respect, and have made many friends in this city. Graham Earle is one of the most versatile as well as talented actors as ever our pleasure to see. He is supported by a strong Company everyone of which is highly talented and capable of presenting their lines in a pleasing manner."

Last week Sheriff Higley and Deputy Adams made a liberal haul and landed Less Ross, Wat Huddleston, Frank Harris, who was in the Dooley-Harris tragedy, and a young woman named Nora Butler, in jail, charged with burglarizing Prather's store at Doe Run about six weeks ago. It appears that the store was entered and robbed of a number of articles, but little was said of it at the time. Nora Butler had been staying at Flat River and Clarence Mitchell, who was arrested and locked up about three weeks ago on a charge of horse stealing, took her to Piedmont and left her at Ragdale's restaurant at that place. He then returned, the store was robbed, and some of the goods were taken to Piedmont by Mitchell and given to the woman; but before leaving there it seems that Mitchell relieved the restaurant of a sum of money. Ragdale then instituted a search for Mitchell, and through this means it was learned that the woman had received the goods from him. She left there and returned to the Flat River country, where she was found at Jeff Wilson's with some more of the goods, which were identified as those stolen from Prather's store at Doe Run by the private mark on some of them, though the labels had been taken off. Nora, finding herself up against it, peached on her pals, implicating Ross, Huddleston and Harris, and Mitchell, who was already in jail on a charge of horse stealing. Further search was made and a lot of tags and labels were found in Jim Harris' barn. The arrest of the three men and the woman followed, and they are held to answer to the charge of burglary and grand larceny.—Farmington Times.

We take from the Herald and Presbyter an item of interest to Vallegians who about twenty-five years ago well knew Mr. Wright as pastor of the Presbyterian church at Ironton: "At Shakopee, Minn., on Tuesday evening, December 18, occurred one of the pleasant events which pastor and people are sometimes permitted to enjoy. The occasion was the fifty-ninth anniversary of the birth of Rev. A. W. Wright, and the congregation had decided to celebrate it in a way to be remembered. Accordingly on that evening, to the great surprise of the pastor and his family, about one hundred of his congregation crowded the house to enjoy the festivities of the evening. On behalf of the congregation, Dr. H. O. Smith, in a few suitable sentences expressive of their high appreciation of the successful work of their pastor, presented, as a mark of their esteem, a very handsome gold-handled ebony cane. The pastor modestly responded, accepting their tribute of esteem, and expressed the hope that unity and success might continue to attend them, as in the past, and more abundantly. After this a bounteous repast, prepared by the Ladies' Aid Society, was served, and music and social conversation continued until the midnight hour, when the happy gathering dispersed, wishing their pastor many happy returns of the day. Among the many valuable presents bestowed was a beautiful gold-mounted fountain pen, a silver shaving mug, and a handsome display of fifty 'American Beauties,' with back-ground of fern leaves—a rose for each year—which was a contribution from the absent children, the same being Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Suelter, Waterbury, Conn.; Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Wright, New York City; Mr. and Mrs. G. George and Miss Esther Wright, Chicago, Ill. This immense bouquet was bound with a pink ribbon, to which was attached a piece of original poetry, very fitting to the occasion. It is safe to say the event will not soon be forgotten by any of the favored participants, and will tend to strengthen the ties which bind pastor and people."

The REGISTER is happy in Holiday remembrances. Among these are several calendars for the first year of the New Century. One is from the Giesling Milling Company, an artistic effort in print and color—the subject picture a pretty girl in rainy-day skirt seated on a platform by an old-time mill-wheel, fishing, the make-up of whose hosiery is unique and pleasing. In casting her hook she has taken from the head of her attendant cavalier—a man of liberal age in youthful togery—not only his summer hat but the clinging wig with it. His bald pate, the unconsciousness of the maiden whose eyes are fixed on the water below her, and the delight of the miller over all, form a pleasing and instructive tableau. Morris Bros. of Farmington send us an elegant specimen in olive and gold, the centerpiece a lively skating scene upon which the eye dwells with delight. Mrs. H. O'Brien of Arcadia presents us with a specimen of her own handiwork—a representation of the old Arcadia House, now gone forever, and the Log Cabin, in black and in colors, set upon a dark green background—the whole forming quite a bit of artistic taste and skill. But that which takes the cake for combination, apposition and ingenuity, as well as comprehension of the weaknesses to which all human flesh is heir, is the time-marker transmitted us by Wm. H. Thomson, Esq., of St. Louis, in business and of "The Valley Home" in his happier hours. His card with wishes for a "Happy New Year—1901"—is placed in the center. Surrounding it are certain mystical emblems whose purport is known of course only to the initiated, as well as representations of the necessities of modern life. The latter are a piece of money, a half-burned cigar, a cigarette, a match, and a beer-glass filled to the brim. Suspended over the scene is a strain from the popular song, "I'd leave my happy home for you!" The symbols are red and white disks arranged in triangular form, and a quietude of playing-cards—four of them ten-spots and one a six-spot. Just why these designations were chosen we don't know, being unacquainted with those things, but with deference, we suggest that, say a Jack and a King, a Queen and a Deuce, a different selection would have made a more brilliant and variegated picture. Notwithstanding this seeming fault in selection—and where so much is sought to be embraced in one small work of art, it were strange to find nothing to criticize—the REGISTER receives the gift with pleasure, and hopes the donor—as well as all the other friends whose favors are here acknowledged—may live to see many another New Year, in Peace, Prosperity and Happiness.

GRANTVILLE, MO., Dec. 24, 1900. A very quiet surprise was worked on the people of Grantville on Sunday evening, by the marriage of Miss Marie Hall, one of Grantville's accomplished young women, to Lee Davis, an industrious young railroad man, of East St. Louis, Ills. The ceremony was quietly performed in the parlor of the bride's home in the presence of her father, mother, grandfather and a few other relatives and friends; Rev. Jenkins, of Bismarck, officiating, after which we repaired to the dining room, where we were seated to a sumptuous wedding supper. They will make their future home in East St. Louis. May their troubles be few, and sunshine ever bless their home.

A Deep Mystery.

It is a mystery why women endure Backache, Headache, Nervousness, Sleeplessness, Melancholy, Fainting and Dropsy. While thousands have found relief Electric Bitters will quickly cure such troubles. "I suffered for years with kidney trouble," writes Mrs. Phebe Cherley, of Peterson, Ia., "and a lame back pained me so I could not dress myself, but Electric Bitters wholly cured me, and, although 73 years old, I now am able to do all my household work." It overcomes Constipation, improves Appetite, gives perfect health. Only 50c. For sale by all Druggists.

Des Are Doings.
We have had a very good Christmas. No one drank, although there were a dozen boys came to town.

The boys had a turkey shooting and I believe they killed fourteen.

Several of our citizens took advantage of the half-fare rate and went visiting; Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Collins among them.

This has been the finest fall and winter so far that ever was known, and everybody had more or less money. The hub trade has scattered a large amount of money in this section. The De Soto, Ironton, Hogan and Piedmont factories have all bought hub timber and there has been several thousand dollars paid out here in cash for this material.

The saw mills are, and have been, crowded with orders for car material, etc. Stevenson Bros. received an order to-day for 75 cars, and had 40 already on hand. E. W. Graves is also crowded with orders for rough and dressed lumber.

The merchants here sold lots of goods during the holidays. Stevenson Bros. sold thirty-eight pair of shoes in one day, and seven hundred lbs. of candy to the different saw mills. This has been a prosperous year for mill men, if McKinley did get there.

We are in receipt of a beautiful calendar from the Morris Bros. Farmington. Bud Metcalf, of this neighborhood, was over there a few days before Christmas. He said they sold $187 worth of goods the day he was there, and he saw the money counted.

Jas. Paulus and bride visited St. Louis during the holidays.

Joe Crowley went to Pine Bluff, Ark., to see his sick son, Sherman.

Edgar Jordan is up from Texas to see his parents, J. J. Jordan and wife. There is something singular about the wreck that happened here some weeks ago. The men's names all commence with B—Britt, engineer, was killed; Bradley, brakeman, was burned to death, and Barrett, son of Tom Barrett, engineer on this road, would have been burned to death, but one of the section men, A. Medley, took an old rail ax and a pocket knife and cut his arm off above the elbow, or else he would have been burned to death in a few minutes, for as soon as he was dragged out the car that was burning fell over on the spot where he was fastened. Young Barrett certainly had a good nerve, for when he was told his arm had to be cut off, he said, "get it at once," and it took several hard licks to get it off, besides cutting the flesh with a dull pocket knife. It was the saddest wreck that ever happened on this road. It will never be forgotten by the citizens of Des Arc.

Mrs. W. E. McKee visited her sister, Mrs. J. S. O'Neal, at Mill Spring during the holidays.

Miss Anna Morris and Blanche Fitz visited Miss Mae Collins at Sabula Sunday.

Miss Ora Lovelace is visiting her sister, Mrs. Jas. Heeter, at Irondale this week.

Miss Lizzie Black is visiting her parents near Centerville.

J. W. Lovelace and wife spent Xmas with their parents.

W. D. Bay spent the holidays at home.

Mrs. Minnie Meadows is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Chas. Williams.

Mann, Mo.

Ed. Register—Sunday morning every thing was made to look beautiful by a skiff of snow; just enough to cover the bare brown earth.

Xmas was very quiet here. Quite a number spent the day hunting.

J. G. Hartman made a business trip to the vicinity of Edge Hill Friday returning Saturday.

Mr. L. E. Logan went to Ironton Saturday.

Miss Carrie Bell is again staying at Mann.

Miss May Cartly, of Black, will attend the subscription school at Cedar Grove.

J. G. Hartman lost a cow one night last week. She was alright at night and the next morning was dead. There has been quite a number of cattle died in about the same length of time. Cause, thus far, unknown.

Miss Nelson, of Goodland, will attend school at Cedar Grove this winter.

Thos. Anderson had a horse die one night recently.

James Anderson, who has been sick so long, is much improved.

Mr. H. Latham has been confined to his room for several days.

Mr. Asa Malone returned to his school Sunday.

The good people intend to have something entertaining for the Sunday school at Cedar Grove just after the first Sunday in the year.

Mr. Burgess Dutton, who had an attack of pneumonia, is, we are glad to say, much improved.

O. C. and C. T. Hartman went to Iron Mountain Monday.

The time for forming new resolutions is here again.

Dec. 31, 1900. MANN.

I am running a free hack to and from the depot to Biemel's, the Commercial Hotel and Keeling's.
